filed under seal, an unredacted version of Governor's Decision No. 19-1 and Contract 127, and supporting financial data estimating the contract value during the first year.

According to the Postal Service, Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 is a competitive product featuring rates “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Request at 1. The Postal Service also maintains that the prices and classification changes applicable to Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 are supported by Governors’ Decision No. 19-1.<sup>3</sup> The Postal Service further asserts that the Statement of Supporting Justification (Statement) provides support for adding Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 to the competitive product list and the compliance of the instant contract with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Id., Attachment D.

II. COMMENTS

The Public Representative has reviewed the Postal Service’s Request, the Statement of Supporting Justification, as well as Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 and the financial data filed under seal with the Postal Service’s Request. Based upon that review, the Public Representative concludes that Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 should be classified as a competitive product and added to the competitive product list. In addition Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 is projected to generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during its first year thereby satisfying 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Product List Assignment. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3642, the Postal Service requests that Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 be added to the competitive product list. 39 U.S.C. § 3642 requires the Commission to consider whether “the Postal Service exercises sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.” 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). Products over which the Postal Service exercises such power are categorized as market dominant while all others are categorized as competitive.

The Postal Service’s Statement of Supporting Justification (Statement) makes a number of assertions that address the considerations of section 3642(b)(1). Request, Attachment D. These assertions appear reasonable. Based upon the Statement, the Public Representative concludes that the Postal Service’s Request to add Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 to the competitive product list is appropriate.

Requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), the Postal Service’s competitive prices must not result in the subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products; ensure that each competitive product will cover its attributable costs; and, ensure that all competitive products collectively contribute an appropriate share of the institutional costs of the Postal Service. Based upon a review of the financial data, the negotiated prices for Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 are projected to generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during the first year of the contract and therefore meet the requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). In addition, while Priority Mail Express & Priority Mail Contract 127 is expected to remain in effect for a period of 3 years, during this period, the contract contains a mechanism for the annual adjustment of prices.

The Public Representative respectfully submits the foregoing comments for the Commission's consideration.
